

PURCHASE ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Acceptance - Agreement. Seller's commencement of work on the goods and/or services subject to this purchase order or shipment of such goods, whichever occurs first, shall be deemed an effective mode of acceptance of this purchase order. Any terms proposed in Seller's acceptance of Purchaser's offer which add to, vary from, or conflict with the terms herein are hereby objected to and rejected, but such proposals shall not operate as a rejection of this offer, unless such variances are in the terms of the description, quantity, price or delivery schedule of the goods and/or services, but shall be deemed a material alteration thereof, and this offer shall be deemed accepted by Seller without said additional or different terms. If this purchase order has been issued by Purchaser in response to an offer and if any of the terms herein are additional to or different from any terms of such offer, then the issuance of this purchase order by Purchaser shall constitute an acceptance of such offer subject to the express condition that Seller assents to such additional and different terms herein and acknowledges that this purchase order constitutes the entire agreement between Purchaser and Seller with respect to the subject matter hereof and the subject matter of such offer, and Seller shall be deemed to have assented and acknowledged unless Seller notified Purchaser to the contrary in writing within ten (10) days of receipt of this purchase order and Purchaser, in writing, acknowledges its acceptance of the variance of terms. In the event purchase orders are sent electronically, Purchaser shall have no liability for orders erroneously placed upon Seller due to the malfunction of the electronic data processing equipment. Purchaser will pay for goods provided hereunder pursuant to Purchaser's standard payment terms.

Delivery of Goods and Risk of Loss. Unless otherwise stated on the face of this purchase order, Seller shall arrange for the delivery of goods and bear all risk of loss until the goods are delivered to Purchaser's plant or facility. Shipment shall be made by Seller to Purchaser in accordance with a delivery date provided by Purchaser's ordering location. Seller shall notify Purchaser within 3 hours of receipt of any order if it cannot comply with the schedule supplied by Purchaser. For all goods delivered, Seller must provide the name and address of the manufacturer (if Seller is not the actual manufacturer), the part number, and the manufacturing batch/lot number of the goods being purchased.

Termination. Purchaser reserves the immediate right to terminate this order or any part hereof for its sole convenience. In the event of such termination, Seller shall immediately stop all work hereunder, and shall immediately cause any of its suppliers or subcontractors to cease such work. Seller shall be paid a reasonable termination charge consisting of a percentage of the order price reflecting the percentage of the work satisfactorily performed prior to the notice of termination. Seller shall not be paid for any work done after receipt of the notice of termination nor for any costs incurred by Seller's suppliers or subcontractors which Seller could reasonably have avoided. Purchaser may also terminate this order or any part hereof for cause in the event of any default by the Seller, or if the Seller fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions of this order. Late deliveries, deliveries of products which are defective or do not meet specifications or do not conform to this order, oversupplies and undersupplies of more than 5%, and/or failure to provide Purchaser, upon request, of reasonable assurances of future performance, shall all be causes allowing Purchaser to terminate this order for cause. In the event of termination for cause, Purchaser shall be liable to Seller for goods and/or services that comply with the terms and conditions of this purchase order and any corresponding specifications and Seller shall be liable to Purchaser for any and all damages, including but not limited to damages and expenses incurred, including consequential damages, by reason of the default which gave rise to the termination.

Proprietary Information -. Seller shall consider all information furnished by Purchaser to be confidential and/or proprietary and shall not disclose any such information to any other person, or use such information itself for any purpose other than performing this contract, unless Seller obtains written permission from Purchaser to do so. This paragraph shall apply to drawings, specifications, or other documents prepared by Seller for Purchaser in connection with this order. Seller shall not advertise or publish the fact that Purchaser has contracted to purchase goods and/or services from Seller, nor shall any information relating to the order be disclosed without Purchaser's written permission. Seller expressly disclaims to Purchaser any and all interest in any intellectual property and/or know-how ("IPR") created under this purchase order which contain or are based upon Purchaser's confidential and/or proprietary information. All such IPR shall belong (and is hereby assigned to) Purchaser.

Warranty. Seller expressly warrants that all goods and/or services furnished under this Agreement shall conform to all specifications and appropriate standards and will be free from defects in material or workmanship. Seller warrants that all such goods and/or services will conform to any statements made on the containers, labels, or advertisements for such goods and/or services and that any goods will be adequately contained, packaged, marked and labeled. Seller warrants that all goods and/or services furnished hereunder will be merchantable, and will be safe and appropriate for the purpose for which goods and/or services of that kind are normally used. If Seller knows or has reason to know the particular purpose for which Purchaser intends to use the goods and/or services Seller warrants that such goods and/or services will be fit for such particular purpose. Seller warrants that goods and/or services furnished will conform in all respects to samples. As to manufactured goods, Seller warrants that it shall, as applicable, manufacture and perform all of its obligations hereunder with the current good manufacturing practices as defined by applicable laws, standards, rules, regulations, and requirements, including, without limitation, Good Manufacturing Practices and General Biologics Products Standards as promulgated under the United States Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. § 301 et seq., and all applicable national implementing laws, regulations and guidelines, and all applicable standards, including, but not limited to, ISO 9000 and ISO 13485 standards, and EN 724 standards. These warranties shall survive inspection, test, acceptance and use. Seller agrees to replace or correct defects in any goods and/or services not conforming to the foregoing warranty promptly, without expense to Purchaser, when notified of such nonconformity by Purchaser. In the event of failure of Seller to correct defects in or replace nonconforming goods and/or services promptly, Purchaser, after reasonable notice to Seller, may make such corrections or replace such goods and services and charge Seller for the cost incurred by Purchaser in doing so. Seller (i) represents, as of the date hereof, that (a) Seller has provided to Purchaser for inclusion in Purchaser's electronic system, a completed copy of Purchaser's Supplier Diversity Classification Form (SDCF) in respect of such Seller, and (b) the size or socioeconomic representations and certifications made in such SDCF are current, accurate, complete, and applicable to the Work under this Agreement (including business size standards applicable to the NAICS code) as of the date hereof or within the last twelve months, and (ii) covenants that Seller shall provide to Purchaser an updated SDCF from time to time within thirty (30) days of Purchaser's request, each of which updated SDCFs shall be current, accurate and complete as of the date of submission by Seller to Purchaser.

Price Warranty. Seller warrants that the prices for the articles sold to Purchaser hereunder are not less favorable than those currently extended to any other customer for the same or similar articles in similar quantities. In the event Seller reduces its price for such article during the term of this order, Seller agrees to reduce the price hereof correspondingly. Seller warrants that prices shown on this purchase order shall be complete, and no additional charges of any type shall be added without Purchaser's express written consent. Such additional charges include, but are not limited to shipping, packaging, labeling, custom duties, taxes, storage, insurance, boxing, and crating.

Force Majeure. It shall not be deemed default hereunder and neither Purchaser nor Seller shall be liable for a failure to perform hereunder arising from causes or events beyond the reasonable control and without the fault or negligence of Purchaser or Seller including, without limitation, riot, terrorism, war or hostilities between nations, governmental action (other than action taken in response to violation or failure to act of a party or any of its affiliates with respect to any law or governmental regulation, in which case the party at fault shall not be permitted to claim the benefit of this paragraph), acts of God (including, for example, floods, windstorms, earthquakes and other natural disasters), fire, accidents, and strikes and other labor disputes of any kind. Each party will notify the other in writing of the cause of such delay within five (5) days after the beginning thereof. To the extent that, and so long as the obligations of either party are affected by any such cause or event, such obligations shall be suspended provided, however, that time is of the essence of this order and should Seller fail to comply with Purchaser's delivery schedule or otherwise fail to comply with its obligations hereunder, Purchaser may terminate this order without liability.

Insurance. In the event that Seller's obligations hereunder require or contemplate performance of services by Seller's employees, or persons under contract to Seller, to be done on Purchaser's property, or property of Purchaser's customer, the Seller agrees that all such work shall be done as an independent contractor and that the persons doing such work shall not be considered employees of the Purchaser. Seller shall maintain all necessary insurance coverages, with coverage limits of no less than $2 million, and with Insurance carriers as deemed appropriate by Purchaser, including, but not limited to, public liability (including contractual and product coverage), auto liability, Workers' Compensation Insurance, and professional liability (errors and omissions). Seller shall furnish a Certificate of Insurance to Purchaser as evidence of appropriate coverages prior to providing goods and/or services to the Purchaser, if requested.

Indemnification. Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser and its affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, employees, and agents (collectively, "Indemnified Parties") against all damages of any kind, claims, liabilities and/or expenses (including attorney's fees) arising out of or resulting in any way to or from any defect in the goods and/or services purchased hereunder, or from any act or omission of Seller, its agents, employees or subcontractors. This indemnification shall be in addition to the warranty obligations of Seller, whether or not stated herein. In addition, Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties against all damages of any kind, claims, liabilities and/or expenses (including attorney's fees) arising out of or resulting in any way from any allegation that the goods and/or services purchased hereunder infringe or violate any patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark, or other third-party proprietary rights, provided that Seller is notified in writing of such claim and given the authority, information and assistance necessary for the defense of said allegation. If, as a result of any such claim, an injunction or exclusion order prevents Purchaser's use, sale, lease, license, or other distribution of any of the goods and/or services purchased hereunder, Seller shall, at its expense and upon Purchaser's request, use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) obtain for Purchaser and its customers the right to continue using such goods and/or services; (ii) replace or modify the infringing goods and/or services so that they become non-infringing while providing substantially the same functionality; or (iii) if the remedies in (i) and (ii) are not reasonably available, refund to Seller all of the fees paid by Seller for such infringing goods and/or services.

Inspection/Testing. Payment for the goods and/or services delivered hereunder shall not constitute acceptance thereof. Purchaser shall have the right to inspect such goods and/or services and to reject any or all of said goods and/or services which are in Purchaser's judgment defective or nonconforming. Goods and/or services rejected and goods and/or services supplied in excess of 105% of quantities called for herein may be rejected and returned to Seller at its expense and in addition to Purchaser's other rights. Purchaser may charge Seller all expenses of correcting, unpacking, examining, repacking and reshipping such goods and/or services. In the event Purchaser receives goods and/or services whose defects or nonconformity are not apparent on examination, Purchaser reserves the right to require compliance with the terms of this purchase order and/or replacement, as well as payment of damages, including but not limited to consequential damages. Nothing contained in this purchase order shall relieve in any way the Seller from the obligations of testing, inspection and quality control.

Compliance.
